

ASSURED SHORTHOLD TENANCY AGREEMENT

Important notes for Tenants

This tenancy agreement is made on the date specified for letting furnished or unfurnished accommodation on an Assured Shorthold Tenancy within the provisions of the Housing Act 1988, as amended by Part III of the Housing Act 1996 and the provisions for the recovery of possession by the Landlord in Section 21 thereof apply accordingly

- This agreement is a legal and binding contract and contains the terms and obligations of the tenancy for the Landlord and the Tenant.
- Where there is more than one tenant, all obligations, including those for rent and repairs can be enforced against all of the tenants jointly and against them individually.
- This agreement may commit you to certain actions for a period of any fixed term and beyond. Therefore, before signing it you should read it carefully to ensure it contains everything you want it to and nothing unacceptable to you.
- Whilst every attempt has been made to compose this agreement using plain and intelligible language, it inevitably contains some legal terms or references.
- If you are unsure of your obligations under this agreement, then you are advised to consult a Housing Advice Centre, Solicitor or Citizen's Advice Bureau.

GENERAL LETTING PROVISIONS

1. The Landlord agrees to let and the Tenant agrees to take the Property and Contents for the Term at the Rent payable as stated overleaf.
2. The Tenant pays the deposit as a security for the performance of the Tenant's obligations and to compensate the Landlord for any breach of those obligations, and hereby agrees that this sum shall not be transferable by the Tenant in any way and at any time against payment of rent
3. In the event of a Council Tax demand being served on the Property for the tenancy period, the Tenant(s) shall be responsible for paying for such a bill. If however, the Tenant provides the Landlord with a valid full-time student number for each occupant then Birmingham City Council will reduce the Council Tax to £0.00
4. The rent may not be changed before the expiry of the Term or the first anniversary of the letting, whichever is the earlier
5. Any notice to the Tenant shall be deemed properly served if served by 1st or 2nd class post, hand delivered to the property or sent electronically by text or email.
6. The term Landlord represents the actual owner of the property or their agent to whom full possession of the property returns at the end of the tenancy. The Tenant includes the person deriving title under the Tenant

TENANTS OBLIGATIONS

7. To pay the rent in full, in advance, commit to staying until the end of the tenancy, pay all rent on the day and in the manner agreed. Tenant will pay any charge at the time of non-payment on any rent in arrears.
8. To pay for the entire invoices and costs of any contractors that the tenant arranges without having previously obtained the landlord's permission.
9. The tenant will not do or allow to be done on the Property anything which may be, or may be likely to become a nuisance or annoyance to the landlord, a person residing, visiting or occupiers of any adjoining premises (including unreasonable noise) or which may invalidate any insurance of the Property against fire or otherwise increase the ordinary premium for such insurance. This responsibility includes the actions and behaviour of visitors and friends of the tenant.
10. Not to make or permit any noise or play any radio, television or other equipment in or about the property between the hours of 22.00hrs – 07.00hrs, so as to be an audible nuisance inside or outside the property.
11. The Tenant will not carry on any profession in the Property, trade or business, let apartments or receive paying guests, place or exhibit any notice or notice board on the Property and will not use the Property for any other purpose than that of private residence.
12. Not to use the property for any illegal or immoral purpose (note – unauthorised taking or possession of controlled drugs is considered to be illegal for the purpose of this clause)
13. To keep the interior of the property and the contents in a good state of repair; well-aired, clean and maintained as they were at the beginning of the tenancy including the doors, window frames, glazing, skylights, replacing all broken glass and light bulbs.
14. The tenant agrees not to cause obstruction in any common areas of the property. The landlord reserves the right to remove any such obstruction. Any items left in the hallways can be removed by the Landlord without prior warning to comply with Fire Safety Regulations (fees may apply).
15. The tenant will not make alterations to the Property without written permission of the Landlord
16. The tenant will not decorate the Property without written permission
17. The Tenant agrees to live as a single household and not as a number of individuals
18. The tenant will not assign, sub-let or part with possession of the property, or let any other person live at the property without written consent from the Landlord
19. The tenant(s) will not allow their visitor(s) to stay more than 1 night in a 7 day period. Overnight visits should not exceed 4 nights in 1 calendar month and should not occur without the prior knowledge and full agreement of all fellow tenants.

20. The Tenant will promptly report all breakdowns, repairs and faults of any kind during the tenancy to the landlord.
21. The Tenant will allow the Landlord's employees or contractors acting on behalf of the Landlord access at all reasonable hours of the daytime to inspect the condition of the Property or adjoining Property (the Landlord will normally give at least 24 hours' notice but immediate access may be required in an emergency).
22. The Tenant will inform the Landlord immediately on receipt of any statutory notice served by any Local Authority regarding the Property.
23. Not to keep motorcycles, cycles or other similar machinery inside the property except in a defined area or garage.
24. Not to allow any animal(s) or bird(s) in the property without the written consent of the Landlord. (The tenants agree to pay for a reputable flea treatment if pets or animals are proved to have been at the Property).
25. The Tenant will not allow any children under the age of 18 to permanently reside at the Property
26. The Tenant will not take down any curtains from the Property or hang their own curtains without the Landlord's written permission
27. The Tenant agrees that should the Tenant give the Landlord any false information in the Tenancy paperwork, the Landlord has the right to immediately cancel the contract
28. The Tenant will not remove any furniture from the Property without the Landlords permission
29. The tenant agrees not to move any furniture from one bedroom to another and agrees to not bring their own furniture without the Landlords consent.
30. The tenant agrees not to exhibit any promotional poster or notice so as to be visible from the outside of the property and to obey the "Poster Zone Rules" where Poster Zones have been installed in the property.
31. Not to cause or permit any blockage to drains and pipes, gutters and channels in or about the property. Common causes of blockages for which the tenant would be responsible would include putting fat down the sink, failure to remove hair from plugholes and flushing inappropriate material (wipes, sanitary towels) down the toilet.
32. The Tenant agrees not to wedge open any fire doors that have a self-closing mechanism
33. The Tenant will only allow the named Tenants to be permanently resident at the Property. The Tenant will ensure that all residents are registered full time students
34. The Tenant agrees to pay the additional fees [where necessary] as detailed on page 7 & 8 of this Tenancy Agreement

Keys & Locks

1. To not swap their keys with any other of the joint Tenants or add additional locks to any doors in the property, nor make additional duplicate keys without the Landlords consent.
2. To not lend the keys to any person whatsoever without the Landlords permission.
3. To not change the security codes (If applicable) without the Landlords consent

Cleaning prior to occupation

1. The Tenant agrees that if one or more named Tenants has lived at the Property in the preceding tenancy period, the Landlord will not clean and prepare the property for this tenancy. The Tenant agrees, however, to clean the property to the Landlords satisfaction at the end of the tenancy.

Rent Statements

1. The Tenant agrees that a copy of any rent statement or reminder can be sent to the Tenants Guarantor, Tenants Parent or Guardian

Gas & Electric suppliers

1. The Tenant will not change gas or electric suppliers without the written consent of the Landlord

Improvements

1. The Tenant agrees to allow the Landlord to make improvements to the property during the tenancy period, if the Landlord wishes to do so. The improvements could include double glazing, new furniture and fittings, new decoration, heating etc.

Viewing

1. The Tenant will allow the Landlord to enter and view the property with prospective Tenants
2. The Tenant will allow the Landlord to show the property on weekdays between 9.00am - 7.30pm until the property is let
3. The Tenant agrees to accept mobile phone text messages, as well as emails as sufficient notice that a viewing will be taking place
4. The Tenant accepts a minimum of 24 hours' notice of a viewing
5. The Tenant agrees to notify the Landlord of any change in residential status or personal details (mobile phone number, email etc)

Advertising Boards

1. The Tenant will allow the Landlord to place an advertising board(s) on the front of the property at any time during the tenancy.

Cleaning of property at start of tenancy

1. The Tenant agrees to notify the Landlord by email within 12 hours of moving in should they find the cleanliness of the property unsatisfactory at the start of the tenancy
2. If the Tenants do not notify the landlord within 12 hours the tenants are agreeing that the cleanliness at the start of the tenancy is satisfactory, even if the Tenants subsequently decide to clean the property themselves

Guarantee

1. It is a condition of this tenancy agreement that a guarantee is entered in the form attached (one guarantor per tenant)
2. If the guarantee is not signed and completed correctly and returned to the Landlord within 7 days from the date of the tenancy contract the Landlord will be entitled to rescind this assured tenancy agreement if the Landlord wishes to do so

Fire Risk Assessments & Other Assessments

1. The Tenant agrees to allow the Landlord to inspect all parts of the property to carry out Fire Risk Assessment (and other assessments) at any time (subject to the Landlord giving the Tenants 24 hours' notice)
2. To not tamper or remove batteries from smoke alarms; notifying the landlord immediately if the smoke alarm sounds, which indicates low batteries.
3. Not to smoke in the property or allow visitors to smoke in the property. Any damage caused by smokers will be subject to recharge.
4. To not use fairy lights in the property and to take all necessary safety precautions when lighting candles. Any damage caused from the use of an open flame by tenants will be subject to recharge.
5. Not to keep, use or permit to be used any oil stove, paraffin heater or other portable fuel burning appliance, or other appliance against the terms of the insurance, except as provided by the landlord.
6. Not to block any ventilation ducts.

8 Week Rent Arrears

1. The Tenant agrees that should their rent fall more than 8 weeks in arrears their guarantor will be asked to take over responsibility of paying their rent from that point onwards [both the arrears and the rent until the end of tenancy]

Leaving Personal Belongings

1. The tenant agrees that any of their belongings, property, personal items, food stuffs, furnishings and equipment is left at their own risk. Anything left behind at the property will be considered abandoned if, after the end of the tenancy and after the expiry of 7 days, written notice is sent, addressed to the tenant at their new or previous address. After this time the landlord may remove, store or dispose of any such items as they see fit. The tenant will remain liable for the fair costs of arranging such removal, storage or disposal and the landlord is entitled to deduct such costs from the tenant's deposit.
2. The Landlord will take no responsibility for any belongings lost, stolen or damaged

Termination

1. The Tenant agrees that they understand the tenancy is a fixed term contract that has no facility for either the Tenants or the Landlord to terminate it before the agreed finishing date.
